WALKER TO WELCOME “COPS KIDS” AT MITCHELL AIRPORT

MILWAUKEE – County Executive Scott Walker will welcome 91 surviving children of law enforcement officers killed in the line of duty and 57 parents/guardians from across the country as they arrive at Mitchell International Airport today. They will then travel to the Salvation Army Lake Camp near East Troy for the week. This 12th annual summer camp is a program of Concerns of Police Survivors (COPS), a national organization that reaches out to the surviving families of law enforcement officers killed in the line of duty.

DATE: Monday, July 31, 12:15pm
LOCATION: Gen. Mitchell International Airport
Maitland Room (in Mitchell Gallery of Flight Museum)
